Welcome to our New Director of National Programs

Duncan Campbell joins the Canadian Bible Society in the role of Director of National Programs January 2, 2019. With 30 years of program development and extensive International Relief and Development leadership, Duncan brings a wealth of knowledge and a passion for Christian ministry to the role. We welcome Duncan as brings his leadership and support to the Regional teams across Canada.

Ottawa remains CBS Centre for Key Leadership Events

Ottawa became the centre for significant CBS events in 2018 including the National Leadership Dinner as well as the National Prayer breakfast. In October the Board of Governors Evening event was held in Gatineau-Ottawa area as well, which opens the door for strategic CBS connections and opportunities.

Ottawa Booth Centre is all about the CBS family

In March 2018, CBS volunteers were invited to come to the Ottawa Booth Centre. It was a special time of sharing and prayer as local board members David and Jamie Barker and Ron Page (holding CBS Prayer calendars) hosted the event there. There was an opportunity at the local outreach meeting where board members and others participated in prayer and support of CBS.

CBS supported at Gilmore Memorial Baptist Church

Lisa Pak and Kandis Cornwall were excited to be a part of the Gilmore Memorial CBS fundraising event last April as many participated. We are so thankful to the generous church and local community support of the Canadian Bible Society.

CBS attends “Christmas on the Hill” in Ottawa

The Canadian Bible Society (CBS) was honoured to attend “Christmas on the Hill” on December 13, 2018. Rev. Dr. Rupen Das, National Director, (top right) and Rev. Lisa Pak, Regional Director for Ontario and Nunavut, (bottom right) joined Christian leaders from across Canada on Parliament Hill at the invitation of MP Joe Peschisolido and the Prime Minister’s Office.
