Last September CBS Development Officer Reg Graves together with CBS Publishing Director Nelly Safari produced and distributed personalized Bibles to minister to the surviving members and families of the Humboldt Broncos hockey team. Those who received the Bibles were deeply grateful. We received media coverage from Judson Rempel of CHVN radio, where Reg shared, "Money's good, but that's not healing their hearts." Also, when Reg was interviewed on the Miracle Channel from Alberta, he emphasized the spiritual importance of this ministry to those who survived and their families.

Reg visited with Ryan Straschnitzki, one of the survivors of the Humboldt Broncos bus crash last April and presented him with a Bible in his honor from the Canadian Bible Society.
